Mr. K. R. Srinivasengar, Rev. Com (on leave), letter 8.6.23

Request that, in the circumstances explained,

The Comptroller may be directed to admit in audit privilege leave allowances instead of Furlough allowances ^{to him} for the 23rd April 1923.

Mr. K. R. Srinivasengar is on privilege leave and furlough continuously from 15th January 1923. The difference of one day is due to splitting up of the period of privilege leave by Comptroller into two portions.

In Govt. order of 19th March 1923,
Mr. Srinivasengar's privilege leave has been extended up to the 23rd April 1923 and he is granted furlough in continuation thereof. The expression 'up to' is always taken to mean 'inclusive of'.

No 639 S.A.D. 2186/23

Mr. K. R. Srinivasaiengar had to his credit 3 months and 9 days privilege leave and the same was not granted to him at one stretch but in two instalments in Government Notifications Nos. 3626 and 4620.

When leave is granted in instalments, the calculation of the availment of the leave, in accordance with the established practice of this office, is also by instalments. This was intimated to him in my letter No. GAD.606 dated 17th May 1923, a copy of which is attached to his letter under disposal. The calculation shows that the leave granted upto the 23rd April 1923 cannot be taken as inclusive of 23rd April 1923.

This seems to be rather a sharp way of calculation as it goes to the prejudice of the officer. It appears to me that it might be held that the prior leave is for a total period of 3 months and 9 days from the 23rd April 1923.

The Comptroller may be asked to treat the two instalments of leave as one period beginning from the 15th January 1923. According to this calculation the full period of 3 months and 9 days will be admissible and the amount now disallowed will be passed.

There is nothing ingenious or strange in the method adopted by the Comptroller. When an officer takes leave in more than one instalment, each instalment has to be taken against the total admissible

K. Matthan, Esquire, B.A.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness

the Maharaja of Mysore, B a n g a l o r e.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that I sent to the Comptroller for audit my pay-bill for April claiming Rs.1,490-14-2 as shown below and requesting to have the amount paid to me by a cheque on the Bank of Mysore:--

Privilege leave allowance @ Rs.1,500/- from 1st up to 23rd April 1923	...	...	Rs.1,226-10-8 Furlough allowance @ Rs.1,500/- from 25th April to end of the month	...	...	Rs. 350- 0-0

Total	...	...	Rs.1,576-10-8
Deductions on account of insurance premium and income-tax	...	...	Rs. 85-12-6

Balance	...	...	Rs.1,490-14-2

2. On receipt of the cheque from the Comptroller, I found that it was only for Rs.1,487-10-3 and as I was not informed of the grounds on which the balance of Rs.3-3-11 had been disallowed, I wrote to him requesting to be enlightened on the point. In reply, he informed me in his letter dated 8th May (copy of which is herewith attached) that I had been allowed privilege leave allowance only up to the 22nd April instead of up to the 23rd April as claimed by me and that this accounted for the disallowance. I thereupon wrote to him pointing out that the Government having sanctioned me privilege leave up to 23rd April and Furlough after that date, I was entitled to privilege leave allowance and not Furlough allowance for 23rd April and requesting that the amount which had been disallowed might be passed and ordered to be paid to me.

A copy of the letter which I have received from the Comptroller in reply to the above communication is herewith submitted for the perusal of Government. It will be seen therefrom that the reason given by the Comptroller to justify the disallowance of the privilege leave allowance claimed by me for 23rd April is more ingenious than sound. In the first place, I had, as stated by the Comptroller, privilege leave for 3 months and 9 days at my credit on the 15th January 1923 from which date I proceeded on leave, and counting the period from the above mentioned date, it is clear that I was entitled to privilege leave up to and inclusive of 23rd April 1923 as notified by Government. The Comptroller wants to have it reduced by one day, by splitting up the period into two portions - from the 15th January to 29th March and from the ⁶later date to 22nd April. This method of calculation is, on the face of it, quite wrong and incorrect.

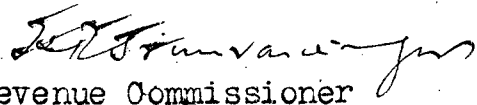

Secondly the Government having in their Notification dated 19th March 1923 sanctioned me privilege leave up to the 23rd April (which certainly includes the 23rd April), the Comptroller was not justified in going behind that Notification. If he found that the period of privilege leave sanctioned to me by Government was in excess of what I was rightly entitled to, he should have brought the matter to the notice of Government for a rectification of the error instead of taking it on himself to disallow the claim made by me in accordance with and on the authority of the Government Order.

In the above circumstances, I request that the Government may be pleased to direct the Comptroller to admit in audit and authorise the payment of the amount disallowed by him.

I have the honor to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

Revenue Commissioner
(on leave).

(1) D.O. No.591/GAD dated 8th May 1923, from the Comptroller to Govt., to K.R. Srinivasiengar, Esq., M.A., Revenue Commissioner on leave:--

"Your privilege leave for three months and eight days which commenced from 15th January 1923 expired on 22nd April 1923. As you had claimed in your pay bill for April 1923 privilege leave allowances at Rs.1,600/- from 1st to 23rd and furlough allowance at Rs.1,500/- from 24th to 30th, you were allowed only furlough allowances for the 23rd April 1923. This together with a deduction of Rs.0-1-5 on account of income-tax accounts for the difference of Rs.3-3-11 referred to by you".
